

Praise the Lord Who Reigns Above (AMSTERDAM)

soprano and two trumpet descant (verse 3)

Tim Brace

The musical score is arranged in three systems, each with three staves. The top staff is for trumpets in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The middle staff is for soprano descant in F major (one flat) and 4/4 time. The bottom staff is for the melody in F major and 4/4 time. The lyrics are: "God, in whom they move and live, let every creature sing, glo-ry to their mak-er give and hom-age to their king. Hallow-ed be thy name be-neath, as in heav'n on earth a-dored praise the Lord in ev-ery breath, let all things praise the Lord!" The score includes various musical notations such as rests, notes, stems, beams, and dynamic markings like "rit..." and "tr".

trumpets

sop descant

melody

God, in whom they move and live, let ev - ery crea - ture sing, glo - ry to their mak - er give and hom - age to their king.

Hallow - ed be thy name be - neath, as in heav'n on earth a - dored praise the Lord in ev - ery breath, let all things praise the Lord!

rit... tr